A Note from Mrs Adams,

Well done to St Andrew's for achieving the most saintly points this week. We now have coloured badges for each child to wear on their shirt collar so it is clear to see which saintly team they are in. The first badge is free but a charge of 50p will be required for any lost or damaged badges. I am sorry we had to postpone the French day, it will be rearranged as soon as we can. We have some great activities coming up over the next few weeks and I am particularly looking forward to catching up with you all during the macmillan coffee morning. If you would like to donate buns/ cakes for us to sell that would be lovely. Have a lovely weekend.

Key Stage Two diaries

We recently sent out letters explaining how to use the Key Stage Two diaries.

The children were given a diary at the start of the year in their new classes.

If your child loses their diary or you require a new one, please note the cost of the diaries are £2.50 as we have had to change our supplier.

Please see the office staff or class teachers with any questions.

Thank you

New baby

We would like to say congratulations to Ms Slinger who has recently given to a birth to a beautiful baby girl, Caoimhe.

Mother and daughter are both doing well.

Year 5/6 residential

We have booked the Year 5/6 Kingswood residential for April 2017. There are 60 places available. Please note the dates are Monday 3rd—Wednesday 5th April. The total cost for the residential is £130 and the first deposit is £40 due by Wednesday 28th September.

Any questions please see the office or Mrs Clipsham.

RE front covers

We launched our Religious Education front covers for books at the start of the year.

We had lots of children who created a picture for the front covers and it was hard to choose a winner.

Congratulations to Charlotte Vaughan (Year 5) and Daisy Booth (Year 4) who are our joint winners and will be combining their designs to go on each child's book across the academy.

Well done.
